FUN WITH LITERATURE, page 6

Read the excerpt from O. Wilde's Dorian Gray and decide whether the statements 01-06 are T true, F false or N not stated in the text.

It was a lovely night, so warm that he threw his coat over his arm and did not even put his silk scarf round his throat. As he strolled home, smoking his cigarette, two young men in evening suits passed him. He heard one of them whisper to the other, "That is Dorian Gray." He remembered how pleased he used to be when he was pointed out, or stared at, or talked about. He was tired of hearing his own name now. Half the charm of the little village where he had been so often lately was that no one knew who he was. He had often told the girl whom he had lured to love him that he was poor, and she had believed him. He had told her once that he was wicked, and she had laughed at him and answered that wicked people were always very old and very ugly. What a laugh she had!--just like a thrush singing. And how pretty she had been in her cotton dresses and her large hats! She knew nothing, but she had everything that he had lost.

DEBATE, page 23

Read the text and complete it with the correct expressions from the word box. Then discuss your weather preferences.

cold front, blue skies, howling winds, dead of winter, below zero, icy cold

I love summer. I don't mind hot weather. But winter makes me miserable. When the temperature drops 01 and the forecast promises yet another 02 I feel I want to escape the 03 and travel to a sunny destination. Sometimes when the sound of the 04 wakes me in the middle of the night I can almost feel how 05 it is and I hate the idea of going out in the morning. Then I usually dream of 06 and wish summer was round the corner!
