This is the story of a grateful pet that found a new home. In 2007, the Svillcic family adopted Khan from a local animal shelter. Just four days later, he began acting aggressively toward 17-month-old Charlotte as she played in her family's yard. Charlotte's mother got scared and thought the dog wanted to attack her daughter, but she was completely wrong. In fact, Khan had spotted a snake that was close to Charlotte. Khan grabbed Charlotte by her diaper and gently pulled her away. He then put himself between the girl and the snake. The snake bit Khan, but his owners were able to quickly get him to a vet.
