

I. Unscramble the words to get five words.

The five genres of literature are _ _ _ _ _ (PEORTY), _ _ _ _ _ (DAMRA), _ _ _ _ _ (PORSE),
_ _ _ - _ _ _ _ _ (NNO-FTICION), and _ _ _ _ _ (MDEIA).

II. Write in the correct genre to each text.

1. Any kind of written text that isn't poetry. The most typical examples are novels and short stories. Then there are letters, diaries, journals. Plot and characters are important.
2. Any text we perform rather than read. Two most famous genres are tragedy and comedy.
3. It is the newest type of literature. There are new and important kinds of texts in our society today, such as movies and films, websites, commercials, billboards, and radio programs. We usually need modern technologies to read it.
4. A text is a poem when it has some sort of meter or rhythm. It's important how the words and phrases sound when put together. It is nearly always written in stanzas.
5. These books pass on information and educate the reader about certain facts, ideas, and/or issues. Some of its genres are histories, textbooks, travel books, newspapers, self-help books, and literary criticism.

III. What genres are these books?

1. Hamlet
2. Oxford Dictionaries
3. The Lord of the Rings
4. a travel blog
5. Shakespeare's Sonnets

Poetry, Drama, Prose, Nonfiction, Media
1. Prose, 2. Drama, 3. Media 4. Poetry, 5. Non-fiction,
III. Hamlet - drama/poetry; Oxford Dictionaries - nonfiction;
The Lord of the Rings - fiction/novel; a travel
blog - media; Shakespeare's Sonnets - poetry